4 TERMS

The seller states that the seller owns the camper, or is authorized by the owner to sell it. Mark only the statements that are true.

Liens and claims — check one

- [x] The camper is free of all liens, loans and claims by others.
- [ ] The camper is subject to the following lien or claim (holder and amount):

Condition — check one

- [x] The camper is sold “as is”, in its current condition with all faults. The seller gives no warranty, express or implied, beyond what is written on this form, to the extent the law allows.
- [ ] The seller gives the following warranty:

The seller transfers to the buyer all of the seller’s rights, title and interest in the camper, subject to any title and registration steps the law requires. Unless page 2 says otherwise, the seller signs over any title on the date of sale. Both parties agree to the terms on this form and on page 2.

Before you sign

1. Compare the VIN or serial number on the camper’s tongue, frame or compliance label with the title or registration, if there is one, and with this form.
2. Check each party’s name and address against photo ID, and the seller’s name against the title or registration, if any.
3. Write the agreed sale price. Record the amount received so far and any balance separately; only say “paid in full” when it is.
4. Mark only the lien and condition statements that are true. If a lender holds the title, get the lien release or payoff arrangement in writing.
5. Travel trailers and fifth wheels are titled and registered in most states; pop-ups and truck campers are not always. Check what paperwork the transfer needs before you rely on this record; if the state issues no title, write that on page 2. This form does not replace a lost or missing title.
6. List the equipment that stays with the camper (hitch, awning, appliances, jacks, batteries) so nothing is assumed. Sign and date in each other’s presence, and keep a signed copy each.
