As-is sale

The vehicle is sold “as is, where is”, in its current condition with all faults, whether or not they are known. The seller has disclosed the condition and known defects written in section 2. Except for what is written on this form, and to the extent the law allows, the seller gives no warranty of any kind, express or implied, including any implied warranty of merchantability or fitness for a particular purpose. The buyer has inspected the vehicle, or chosen not to, and accepts it in its current condition.

The seller transfers to the buyer all of the seller’s rights, title and interest in the vehicle, subject to the official title and registration steps. Unless page 2 says otherwise, the seller signs the title over to the buyer on the date of sale. Both parties agree to the terms on this form and on page 2.

Before you sign

1. Compare the VIN on the vehicle (dashboard plate and door-jamb label) with the VIN on the title and on this form.
2. Check each party's name and address against photo ID, and the seller's name against the certificate of title.
3. Write the agreed sale price. Record the amount received so far and any balance separately; only say "paid in full" when it is.
4. Record the odometer reading and mark whether it is the actual mileage. This form does not replace the odometer disclosure on the title or your state's official form.
5. Mark only the lien and condition statements that are true. If a lender still holds the title, get the lien release or payoff arrangement in writing.
6. An "as is" sale limits warranties; it does not excuse hiding a known defect, and some states limit what a private as-is sale can exclude. Dealers have separate obligations. Check your state's rules.
7. Check your state's rules for signing over the title, notarization, release of liability, plates and registration deadlines. Sign and date in each other's presence, and keep a signed copy each.
