INITIALS

SELLER	BUYER

Before you sign

1. Count the animals and compare their ear tags, brands or other IDs with the schedule in section 2; check that the line totals add up to the total.
2. Check each party's name and address against photo ID. If the animals carry a registered brand, check it against the seller's brand registration.
3. Give each animal or group its own line and price. If the price is by weight, write the weight and rate on the line or on page 2. Record the amount received and any balance separately.
4. Mark only the lien and condition statements that are true. Livestock is often financed: ask about loans and consider a UCC lien search in the seller's state before paying.
5. Many states require a brand inspection, a health certificate or official ID tags before livestock are sold or moved. Check with your state's department of agriculture or livestock board before moving the animals; this form does not replace those documents.
6. Sign and date in each other's presence. A witness or notary is only needed when your state or the asset requires one. Keep a signed copy each.
